Dear Harold:

I deeply appreciated your letter of 18 April inviting me to speak at the meeting of your Advisory Board on International Business on 8 June.

I have delayed answering in the hope I could work out my plans to be with you. Unfortunately, I find that I shall have to be leaving for Europe about the time of your meeting and I can't get away to New York at that particular moment.

If by any chance you would wish to have me come to a meeting at some later date, I should certainly like an opportunity to do so.

It is always good to hear from you and I hope we can get together soon.

Sincerely,

CHAIRMAN

April 18, 1960

Dear Allen:

We have a very valuable Board which is known as our Advisory Board on International Business. It meets quarterly for about an hour at the University Club and is followed by a dinner to which we invite a number of outside friends and customers who are interested in foreign trade. Our next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 8th, at the University Club in New York.

We customarily have two or three short talks and a discussion period. As Huck Aldrich and I will have just returned on June 6th from a trip to Europe, we will plan to make a report at this meeting and would like very much to have you join us and give us a talk on the work of your Agency. We, of course, understand that you could only talk on matters that are not confidential. Baxter Jackson, who is Chairman of this Board as well as Clinton Johnson, Executive Vice President, who is in charge of our International Division, join me in extending this invitation.

We realize that the June date may not be a convenient one for you and if so, we hope you will speak later. However, we would particularly like to have you in June if you can find it convenient to be with us.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
